

"AFTER SUFFERING TERROR DUE TO ATOMIC WEAPONS,
AFTER EXPERIENCING HORROR DUE TO MUTAGEN WEAPONS,
THE NEXT WAR WILL BRING ON A WEAPON
THAT WILL BREACH THE LIMITS OF TIME AND SPACE...

THE HUMAN MIND"

*Ashmir Nax, "Book of Visions",
vol. III - vv.5-18/1 - 216 AMW*

This tragic prophecy proclaimed by Ashmir Nax, founder of the Ordo Excubiarum, sets the beginning to the Mindstalkers saga.

This book is a collection of all the background information regarding Mindstalkers that ManorHouse Miniatures will regularly keep publishing: stories, socio-political descriptive tables, character profiles, technical descriptions of weapons and equipment... we will explore this complex universe from top to bottom so that you can get more involved and enjoy your Mindstalkers games!

This book is not exactly progressive due to its "work in progress" spirit: therefore all background documents will have their own growing number reference and each document will have separate page numbering. The best approach to the storyline would be to read them as they are listed. However there is nothing to stop you from collecting and consulting them in whatever sequence you prefer.

Before we begin, I want to give my heartfelt thanks to everyone who by providing suggestions, ideas and enthusiasm is actively contributing to improving and expanding my writings for this trip into imagination... namely:

Lorenzo Marchetto, Alessio "Wolfbane" Cisbani, Alberto "Sanchez" Sangiovanni, Andrea Mariconti, Rossana Malinverno, Roberto e Graziella Paulotto.

Have fun while you're reading and... may Nax protect you from the thousand hazards of Time and Space!

Fabio "Jacknife" Paulotto
